

I object to Sinclair media using the free public airways to only give one sided views and forcing their stations to do it. This is the opposite of freedom and shows we need independently owned media - mergers are really toxic to democracy.